My Darling

A very busy day and a happy one, Martin comes this morning and Clyde this afternoon; with little sister Grace to drive me over and Bud to drive me home. I think I am a very fortunate little girl to have so many kind friends.

Your letter last night was lovely — Mr. Stanton called here, while I was away, so glad you could give him a detailed account of the meeting I held yesterday.

I shall wait for you about nine or earlier tonight.
Oh those happy moments we have together, how much

They mean —

God be with you and the boys bright;

Longley

Lincoln.
